RUSSIANS PUSH TOWARD BERLIN

Czar has Nearly Million Men in Field in Eastern Prussia.

AUSTRIANS ROUTED.

Troops of Francis Joseph Meet Serious Reverses all Along 200-Mile Line of Battle.

London, Sept. 5 .12:53 p. m.—With Russias victorious armies pressing onward in the direction o f Berlin and Vienna, dispatches today indicate that the alarm of the Germans is acute, and large forces of men are being withdrawn from the west to enter the campaign against the Slav invaders.

Simultaneously with the admission from Vienna that Russia's victory over Austria's great army in Galicia is complete, comes the statement from St. Petersburg that the Czar's army has begun its advance on Berln.

In Northern and Eastern Prussia the powerful attack has been launched against the defenders. Re-enforcements that bring the fighting force up to nearly a million men have joined the army that has contented itself with holding in check the German attack until Austria was routed.

Twenty army corps comprise the tremendous army that has begun its march on the German capital.

Advices from the Austrian capital admit that the army has met with most serious reverses, that the Russians have been victorious all along the 200-mile line of battle, that they are now in complete control of Poland and Eastern Galicia, and that the Austrians are in full retreat along the Vistula.

In an official statement the war office at St. Petersburg announces that the Austrian army has been completely crushed in the ten-day battle that has just ended with appalling losses in which the enemy suffered the more severely. Thousands of prisoners, 200 cannon, and important field supplies are reported to have been taken.

In conclusion the statement says the greater part of the Russian forces are now free to take part in the general advance upon Berlin that has already begun.

OPPOSE HOSPITAL SITE.

Lrdy Managers do Not Favor Lot in Northwestern Section.

That there is considerable opposition to the site seected for the new Alexandria Hospital is being manifested every day since the announcement was made that the committee had decided on the square bounded by Columbus, Alfred, Pendleton and Wythe streets.

The Gazette has received the following communications through Mrs. L. Wilbur Reid:

The Board of Managers of the Alexandria Hospital desire to correct the statement in the paper of last evening that they concurred with the trustees in the selection of the square bounded by Columbus, Afred, Pendeton and Wythe streets, for the new Alexandria Hospital.

On the contrary, at a meeting held on August 31st, the Lady Board of Managers unanimously opposed the selection of that site and offered a resolution to that effect at the joint meeting Thursday evening.

NEWS OF THE DAY

It is officially announced in Rome that Cardinal Dominic Ferrata has been appointed Papal Secretary of State.

Transatlantic calls for breadstuffs said to be without a parallel in the history of the trade yesterday brought the wheat pit in Chicago to the boiling point, and at the finish the May option sold as high as $1.31 1-4.

The Servian Legation in London announces that a Servian army is invading Bosnia and Herzegovnia and will march upon Sareovo, where Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Autsrian throne, and his wife were assassinated.

The Adminstration's campaign against the high price of food products bore fruit in Washington yesterday when the Federal grand jury returned indictments against 31 persons, accusing them of combining to regulate prices, in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust act.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The forty-eighth annual reunion of the Grand Army of the Republic closed in Detroit yesterday. Col. David J. Palmer, of Iowa, past commander of the Department of Iowa, was elected commander-in-chief, and Washington was chosen as the convention city.

Louis Monastero, for several years assistant rector of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church at North Side, Pittsburg, Pa., but of late president of the Italian Aeroplane Company, made a mysterious escape from North Side city prison following his arrest on a charge of murder. The prisoner is accused of having shot and killed Mrs. Angelina Cassae, who opposed his efforts to marry her daughter Rose, recently divorced from Stephen Monastero, a brother of Louis.

Thomas Lavin, 35 years od, son of the late Thomas Lavin, of Cumberland, Md., committed suicide Thursday evening at the Consolidated Orchards, three miles west of Spring Gap, by cutting his throat with a razor. Lavin returned with the other employes from the orchards on Martin,s mountain after a day,s work and after supper went to the porch of the mess house. Without saying a word to anyone he drew a razor and gashed his throat in the presence of more than 100 men. He was dead before the witnesses realized what had happened.

Human bridges, composed of the corpses of soldiers, showed at points along the Meuse River how fierce the fighting was between Germans and the allies at those places. Refugees and message bearers from the eastern front brought news yesterday to Paris that a desperate engagement has been going on for ten days at various points, the lines sagging forward and backward under repeated assaults. It is impossible to estimate the number of Germans killed during the past ten days' fighting along the valley of the Meuse, said a wounded soldier." At three or four points the river was literally filled with dead bodies, the corpses being piled so high that they dammed the river.

GERMANS PREPARE TO CRUSH ALLIES

French Take up Battle Line . . and Wait for Invaders' Assault.

FIGHTING IMMINENT.

Kaiser Preparing to Surround Armies of France and England and Overwhelm them.

London, September 65, 3:45 p. m.—Russia, France and Great Britain, today signed an agreement that none of the three woud make peace with out the consent of all three nations.

Paris, Sept 5.—That the Germans are concentrating for a supreme effort to crush the allied armies is admitted at military headquarters here today. The wireless reports from Bordeaux say that the war office there considers the situation satisfactory.

The enemy has moved to the eastward of Paris, his forces being reported in strength at La Ferte-sous-Jouarre, eleven miles east of Meaux and is apparently strengthening its positions at all points.

That the French have taken up their battle line and now await the German assault is admitted at war headquarters.

The fighting may begin at any moment.

General Joffre has assured Minister of War Millerand that he is ready But where the new battle is to come, and whether, at last, the French are to keep their promise of assuming the offensive, no one here will say.

It is believed here the German plans provide for the masking of Paris and the chief French fortifications, with no attempt to attack them or reduce them until after the present movement to force a general battle with allies has failed or succeeded. There is not the slightest doubt in the minds of military experts here that the German great objective is the destruction of the French field army and its British allies. Every movement of the German right wing has been planned to envelop the French left and drive it eastward on the French center. Then the Germans clearly had planned to surround the armies and overwhelm them by sheer weight of numbers.

STEAMBOATS IN CRASH.

Women Passengers on Steamer Northland Faint as Boat Smashes Into Another

Passengers on the Norfolk and Washington steamer Northland, were thrown into a near panic, about 7 o'clock last night when the Northland, in docking at the Old Point Pier, crashed into the steamer Smithfield, which had made a bad landing.

Women on board the Northland fainted and for a while it was believed the Northland had been seriously crippled.

An examination, however, showed that she had been only slighty injured and later the vessel proceeded toward Washington.

The Northland reached Alexandria this morning on time.

HIGH PRICES IN MARKET.

There was an abundance of country produce in market this morning, but during the early hours prices were as firm as Gibraltar. Eggs were being held at 32 cents per dozen, with butter at former prices and chickens firm with an advancing tendency.

The announcement that certain Washington dealers are to be prosecuted for combining to raise prices of the necessaries of life was read with satisfaction by Alexandrians, many of whom believe combinations fix the prices in our city market.

REED BIRDS ON TOAST AT RAMMELS.

CONTEST OPENS IN NINTH DISTRICT

Governor Stuart Will Speak Monday in Behalf of Irvine.

BULL MOOSERS ALIVE.

Progressives' Star Spellbinder Issues Challenge to Joint Debate, Which Has Been Ignored.

Richmond, Sept5—The congressional campaign in the Ninth District, where R. Tate Irvine is the nominee of the Democratic party against Congressman C. Bascom Slemp, Republicans, and J. L. Rose Progressive, or "Bull Mooser," will be opened auspiciously at Jonesville on Monday. Governor Henry C. Stuart will speak at a big mass-meeting to be held in the interest of Mr. Irvine's candidacy, and the candidate will appear on the hustings for the first time in this campaign.

The activity of the "Bull Moosers" in the Ninth has occasioned much apprehension in the Republican ranks, and tends to strengthen the hope of a Democratic victory. George W. Blankenship, the star campaign spellbinder of the Progressives, has challenged both Governor Stuart and Mr. Irvine to a joint debate to be held either at Jonesville or Lebanon. The Democratic orators are scheduled to speak at a big rally in Lebanon next Tuesday going to that town from Jonesville. The challenge has not been served on the Governor, but is published in some of the newspapers in the district, Mr. Blankenshop preferring this indirect medium.

To this time the [illegible] challenge has been ignored, and there is no probability that the Democratic speaker will consent to share their platform with him at either of the places designated by him.

The Governor yesterday accepted an invitation to deliver an address at the Farmers' Meeting and School Fair, which is to be held at Dinwiddie Courthouse September 26.

DESPAIR IN BUDAPEST.

Believe Failure of Austro-Hungarian Structure is Impending.

London Sept. 5—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Ostend says.

"A tourist who has just arrived here from Budapest, after nearly a week's trip, said: "There is a feeling of complete despair in Budapest. This is caused mainly by the practical abandonment of the campaign against Servia, which had the whole-souled support of the populace, who believe that only one sharp stroke was needed to demolish Servia. Yet at the end of a month not a single Austrian soldier is on Servian soil.

"The position of the dual monarchy is very serious if it is compelled to make peace with Servia on account of the chronic difficulties with the Slav population. The people in Budapest believe that the breaking up of the whole Austro-Hungarian structure is impending.

The failure of the army sent against the Rdssians is also disheartening to the Austro-Hungarians. The newspaper censorship in Budapest is so rigid that the people practically have ceased reading the newspapers."

STATEWIDE LAW AND OLD POINT

Vexatious Question Has Been Put to Attorney General Pollard.

DUAL CONSTRUCTION.

Virginia Can Serve Processes and Make Arrests on Government Reservations . . But Nothing Else.

Richmond, Sept 5—What effect would the enactment of a Statewide prohibition law have upon the sale of intoxicating beverages at Old Point Comfort, which is a government reservation?

This question has been asked a hundred times during the present campaign. It was put yesterday to Attorney-General John Garland Pollard. The Attorney-General looked into the terms upon which Virginia made the Old Point Comfort grant to the government and rendered this opinion:

"The State has authority to serve processes in civil suits or to arrest criminals on the reservation property."

To the lay mind this opinion qualifies as a first-class legal puzzle Local option men, with the Attorney-General's expression to guide them, believe that State-wide prohibition will be inoperative at Old Point Comfort since the State's authority on the reservation is limited to the serving of processes in civil suits and the arrest of criminals.

On the other hand, prohibitionists point out that, the sale of liquor in violation of the law would make the seller a law-breaker and, therefore, subject to arrest by the officers of the Commonwealth. To which it is replied that the sale of liquor on the reservation would violate no State law since State laws do not apply there.

THE WAGER VERANDAH.

Metamorphosis of Old Landmark in Front of a Modern Apartment

As was stated recently in the Gazette, the old stone porch which had stood in front of what was at times known as Newton's Hotel, Green's Mansion House and in subsequent years as the Braddock House, has been transformed into a verandah, and when the structure shall have been again reopened, this adjunct will be used during the summer by the occupants of the new apartment to pass the evening hours. Electric lights are to be placed upon it.

The passing away of the porch, one of Alexandrias oldest landmarks, brings many reminiscences to mind. In the years preceding the outbreak of the civil war the Mansion House was Alexandria's main hostelry, and people from the southland gathered within it to discuss the impending crisis. It was upon the old porch where the news of the John Brown insurrection was discussed, as well as the firing upon Fort Sumter. On the 24th day of May, 1861, there was a stampede from Alexandria caused by the capture of the city by federal troops, and the guests of the Mansion House went further south to ventilate their wrath upon the people of the northern section of the country. The government subsequently took posssion of the hotel and during the war it was used as a hospital.

At the close of the conflict the old hotel was reopened by Martin Maddox and flourished for a while. General Robert E. Lee was tendered a rousing ovation a short time after the close of hostilities at the Mansion House.

The hostelry passed from one management to another until in late years it ceased to be a hotel.

PROPERTY IN THE COUNTY

Taxable Values Show an Increase of $200,000 Over Last Year

Practically all of the more than two hundred thousand dollar increase that the total valuation of all classes of property in Alexandria county has seen in the past year, consists of the improvements to real estate, Wm. H. Duncan, commissioner of revenue for Alexandria county, stated in explaining a table of valuations he issued to the newspapers this week. There have, however, been normal increases in the valuations of all classes of the property he lists for taxation.

The total value of all property taxed by the county, real and personal, is this year $7,533,141. More than four million and a half of this amount is real estate. Of the remainder, the property of public service corporations, which is listed by the state, slightly exceeds in value all other personal property in the county.

Of the $1,277,084 of personal property, bonds and notes form the biggest item, being listed at over five hundred thousand dollars, with household furniture next at $132,060, and $50 worth of felled timber as the smallest items. The county shows more than a thousand horses, 283 hogs, 5343 watches worth $6,255, and only 33 boats though it has a navigable water front of ten miles.

Money reported on deposit with banks, $51,800, almost doubled since last year and this Commissioner Duncan attributes to the reduction in the tax rate on this class of property which the assembly made last winter. All incomes reported total $71,226.

SAM SMALL'S SPEECH

Delivers Prohibition Address to Large Audience at the Opera House.

The Opera House was filled last night with the friends of prohibition, to hear Sam Small of Atlanta Ga., on the subject of State-wide Prohibition.

Rev. C. R. Strausburg, pastor of the M. P. Church, stated that there had been great deal of talk about increasing taxes in Staunton since that city went dry, and to make sure he had telegraphed the Commissioner of Revenue and read the reply of the Commissioner stating there had been no increase.

Miss Blanch Rotchford sang an appropriate solo.

Mr. Small was introduced by Rev. D. H. Kern, Presiding Elder of the Alexandria District M. E. Church South.

He was received with applause and spoke for over two hours in his inimitable way. He said he was a great grand son of Virginia, though born in Tennessee, but that he had lived in the State and had received his education here, and was glad to be again in the State, battling against the saloon.

That the State as a unit had the right to throw out the saloon was shown by reading extracts from the Constitution and works of Thomas Jefferson. He said that the organization of respectable men in Richmond known as the Local Self Government League was trying to make the people believe that this election was for either Local Option or prohibition. But such was not the case. They tried to get a bill through the Legislature, to that effect but failed, that the election on the 22nd, inst is for State-wide or against. For the saloon or against it. If the gentlemen in Richmond were in favor of Local Option, he said, they could make Richmond dry in two weeks, but they are not in favor of Local Option and are trying to fool the people. He urged his audience not to believe what they saw in the newspapers unless they know who edited it and if the article was paid for. He said that he was an Editor himself for twenty years.

As to an increase in taxes he stated Ex. Auditor Donohoe, Ex-Governor Mann, Ex. Speaker Byrd and others, who were familiar with the situation declared there would be no necessity for an increase.

As to the argument that prohibition did not prohibit, not to believe it, for a moment. That Maine had been dry for fifty six years and Kansas twenty-four years and if they were satisfied with its results we should not complain.

WILL NOT USE PORTNER'S WATER.

At a meeting of the city school board held on Thursday night Captain W. H. Sweeney, superintendent of schools, stated to the members that he had had an interview with Peter Von Westerlaken, representing the Robert Portner Brewing Co., who had agreed to supply the public schools with a sufficient number of casks varnished inside with spiggots attached, and to fill them daily with a supply of artesian water from the brewery's wells without any cost to the city. The offer was made on the part of the brewery officials because of the prevalence of typhoid fever in Alexandria, many of the children of employees of the concern, being enrolled in the public schools. It was a most generous offer and there should have been no question about its acceptance.

The matter was refered to the committee on school houses and furniture but they, for reasons best known to themselves, formulated other plans for securing water. An order was given to the National Fruit Products Co. for a number of cider barrels at a cost of $1.38 each and arrangements were made for securing water from the Mutual Ice Co. who have been very generous in giving water freely to all applicants during the summer. The school board, however, will be compelled to pay the cost of the hauling the water to the school buildings which will amount to a considerable item.

It was stated today that several members of the school board had objected to the acceptance of the offer from the Portner people because the water would be obtained in barrels from a brewery but this was denied by the J. Frank Myers, chairman of the committee who had the matter in charge.

There is room for the belief, however, that the bitterness of the issue between the advocates of statewide prohibition and those who prefer local option had something to do with rejecting the profer of the Portner Brewing Company.

Nearly nineteen hundred years ago the bitterness between the Jews and Samaritans was so pronounced that the former would walk a hundred miles out of their way in order to avoid passing through Samaria. They would have no dealings with the inhabitants of that country, refusing to take a cup of water from their hands.

We read that Jesus Christ journeyed in Samaria while upon the earth and solicited a drink of water from a woman of the despised race. If any in Alexandria are so prejudiced as to be deterred from drinking water furnished gratuitously from a brewer, they might get a suggestion from the incident in the mundane career of the Saviour of Mankind.

At any rate an explantaion by the School board who are charged with the econmical handling of the people's money would prove interesting.

WARNING TO THE INSURED.

Fire insurance men are endeavoring to impress upon the public the importance of special care in the matter of fire prevention at this particular time.

Normal losses have been heavy, and if a serious conflagration should come the existing financial and banking conditions would produce an unusual result. It would be necessary for the companies to sell large amounts of securities to pay a loss of that magnitude, and with the stock exchanges closed this would be impossible, no matter what great sacrifices they might be willing to make as to price in order to meet their obligations promptly. A conflagration just at this time, with its distruction of values and its disturbance of financial conditions would be serious.

It is the duty of every assured, be he a householder or an employe, to take every wise precaution to prevent fire and its dire results at all times, particularly so at the present time.

A loss of a property now not only means a money loss of the property, but a loss of a plant, which at the present time will be most desirable to have in service, not alone for the good of the house, but for the welfare of the employes themselves.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

The Way Samose was Introduced—Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater and Sons.

More than half the readers of the Gazette would give almost anything to be plump and rosy instead of thin and scrawny.

Physcians and chemists for years have studied the problem of making a flesh-forming food but it is only within the last few months that a bright man discovered the prescription that taken with the daily meals gave a positive increase in flesh In fact it was so certain in its action that a guarantee was attached to each package stating that if weight did not increase as a result of using it the purchase price would be refunded.

This preparation is now put up in convenient form under the name of Samose.

E. S. Leadbeater and Sons have secured the agency in Alexandria for Samose and as the percentage of satisfactory results from the use of this perscription is so nearly one hundred per cent they feel there is no risk in offering to refund the money if Samose does not do all that is claimed for it.

Everybody that is thin and out of health should begin today the use of Samose with a guarantee like this.

STRIKE IMMINENT.

Steamfitters of Washington, Baltimore And Alexandria May Participate.

Unless striking members of Steamfitters' and Hepers' Local, No. 6502 of Washington, return to work Tuesday their places are to be filled with non union men brought to Washington from other cities. This was the ultimatum served on the union by the Master Steamfitters' Association, following a meeting of the latter organization.

Officers of Local No. 602, say that attempts on the part of employing steamfitters to import strikebreakers or to fill the places of union men with nonunion steamfitters would result in a general strike that would tie up operations in Batimore and Alexandria, as well as Washington.

THEY ALL DEMAND IT.

Alexandria like every city and town in the Union, receives it.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results to thousands. Here is Alexandria evidence of their merit.

Mrs. Annie Scott, 110 Prince St., Alexandria, says: I had pains in my back and I couldn't rest well. In the morning I always felt tired and worn out, and I also had dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills did such good work that it is a pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers. I am the same strong friend to Doans Kidney Pills today as I was some years ago when I told of the cure they had made for me. The cure has been lasting.

Price 50c at all dealers. Dont simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doans Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Scott had. Foster Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
